DAWSON GRIDDERS ARE DECISEVLY BEATEN, 13-0

Howells and Dow Lead Attack of Armstrong Men as Denver Falls.

Denver Threatens Throughout. Crimson Holds Upper Hand At Crucial Moments.

Utah's Red Devils continued their victorious march toward a Rocky Mountain Conference championship Saturday when they smashed their way through a fighting Denver university eleven to a well-earned 13 to 0 victory. During the first half of the game the Denver squad played the Crimsonites on an even basis, but they were forced to give everything they had in order to stop the Utah men and the second half was all Utah. In the second half the big Red team made a total of 13 first downs from scrimmage while the best that the Pioneers were able to do was to make two first downs in the last minute of play on completed passes.

Utah scored in the first period of play after Caffey recovered a Denver fumble on the 25-yard line. Eight plays put the ball on the 7-yard line and Howells plunged through tackle for a touchdown. Howells kicked goal. The rest of the first half was all in favor of Denver and on three occasions, the Pioneers carried the ball out of their own territory to within 20 yards of the Crimson goal line, only to lose the ball, twice on downs and once on a fumble. The Hilltoppers took the offensive as soon as the second half began and until the final minute of play, when three passes took the ball to the Utah ten-yard line, the Pioneers failed to get within forty yards of the Crimson goal. The Redskins had three excellent chances to score during this half and on one occasion Jack Howells drop-kicked from the 38-yard line for three points, while, with two minutes to go, Vic Tauer also converted a nice drop-kick from the 30-yard line. Utah's other chance for a score came when a drive from its own 40-yard marker carried it to the Denver one-yard line, but the ball was lost on downs. On another occasion the Crimson eleven reached the 15-yard line only to lose fifteen yards on a recovered fumble.

Dow and Howells played brilliantly for the victors. Howells was the more consistent of the two and his drop-kicking was responsible for four of Utah's points. Tauer and Captain Morris set good examples for the rest of the line to follow and it would be impossible to pick any outstanding stars on the line.
