from page 1

1995

leaders didn’t expect such a low turn-out to the concert. The loss spurred a change in ASUU policy in promoting concert "to ensure it doesn’t happen again," ASUU President Brent Graham said.

Money Missing From ASUU
University Police began an investigation of ASUU’s Executive Branch regard-ing missing funds. U. Police said a student allegedly took student fees through his or her position in ASUU. "Irregularities" led ASUU President Brent Graham and Vice President Jeff Wright to believe ASUU policies had been violated.

Utes 34 Cougars 17
For the third consecutive year the U. football team stomped the Cougars of Brigham Young University. The victory gave the Utes their first piece of the WAC championship since 1984.

Department of Energy Report
Reveals U. Radiation Tests
Thirteen different "human radiation experiments" were conducted on 640 people in the University of Utah between 1954 and 1972, according to a Department of Energy report.

Secretary of Energy Hazel O’Leary released a report that acknowledged 335 different radiation experiments on an estimated 16,000 people.

The U’s 13 experiments were performed on volunteers including 329 from the Utah State Prison.

Former Swimmers Convicted for Burglary and Assault
Three former University of Utah swimmers broke into a Ralph Hall dorm and assaulted two U. students on Feb. 5. Robert Bryce was charged with a second degree felony of burglary and a class B misdemeanor for assault. Eric Garnett was charged with burglary and a class B assault.

Scott Water was charged with aggravated assault, a third degree felony and burglary.

Virtual University Is a Possibility
University students in the future may never need to step into a classroom to receive a college degree.

Utah Gov. Mike Leavitt is a major advocate of the virtual university project. The goal of the virtual university would be to break down barriers by giving students an education where they could pool credits they took through correspondence.

U. Basketball Star Investigated for Dealings with Agents
The National Collegiate Athletic Association investigated U. basketball player Brandon Joes, who allegedly had dealings with sports agent Robert Troy Carus of Pro Massage Sports Agency in California. Joes was suspended from several regular-season basketball games.

Board of Regents and Governor
Support Tuition Freeze
Tuition for the 1996-97 school year has almost no chance of increasing.

The Utah State Board of Regents voted for a freeze on tuition in November, and Utah Gov. Mike Leavitt, officially called for a freeze in December. The Utah State Legislature will vote on the freeze this month.

If the freeze is approved, it will end 19 consecutive years of tuition increases in Utah’s state-owned institutions.

1995

from page 1

leaders didn’t expect such a low turn-out to the concert. The loss spurred a change in ASUU policy in promoting concert "to ensure it doesn’t happen again," ASUU President Brent Graham said.

Money Missing From ASUU
University Police began an investigation of ASUU’s Executive Branch regard-ing missing funds. U. Police said a student allegedly took student fees through his or her position in ASUU. "Irregularities" led ASUU President Brent Graham and Vice President Jeff Wright to believe ASUU policies had been violated.

Utes 34 Cougars 17
For the third consecutive year the U. football team stomped the Cougars of Brigham Young University. The victory gave the Utes their first piece of the WAC championship since 1984.

Department of Energy Report
Reveals U. Radiation Tests
Thirteen different "human radiation experiments" were conducted on 640 people in the University of Utah between 1954 and 1972, according to a Department of Energy report.

Secretary of Energy Hazel O’Leary released a report that acknowledged 335 different radiation experiments on an estimated 16,000 people.

The U’s 13 experiments were performed on volunteers including 329 from the Utah State Prison.

Former Swimmers Convicted for
Burglary and Assault
Three former University of Utah swimmers broke into a Ralph Hall dorm and assaulted two U. students on Feb. 5. Robert Bryce was charged with a second degree felony of burglary and a class B misdemeanor for assault. Eric Garnett was charged with burglary and a class B assault.

Scott Water was charged with aggravated assault, a third degree felony and burglary.

Virtual University Is a Possibility
University students in the future may never need to step into a classroom to receive a college degree.

Utah Gov. Mike Leavitt is a major advocate of the virtual university project. The goal of the virtual university would be to break down barriers by giving students an education where they could pool credits they took through correspondence.

U. Basketball Star Investigated for Dealings with Agents
The National Collegiate Athletic Association investigated U. basketball player Brandon Joes, who allegedly had dealings with sports agent Robert Troy Carus of Pro Massage Sports Agency in California. Joes was suspended from several regular-season basketball games.

Board of Regents and Governor
Support Tuition Freeze
Tuition for the 1996-97 school year has almost no chance of increasing.

The Utah State Board of Regents voted for a freeze on tuition in November, and Utah Gov. Mike Leavitt, officially called for a freeze in December. The Utah State Legislature will vote on the freeze this month.

If the freeze is approved, it will end 19 consecutive years of tuition increases in Utah’s state-owned institutions.